Featured Artists for February

Our featured artists have a full month to display their artwork in the front window, come see it!!

Ann Coker Nature photography

Ann Coker (wildlife photographer)

Q: Please take one of your favorite pieces featured in the window this month and state your inspiration in creating this piece?

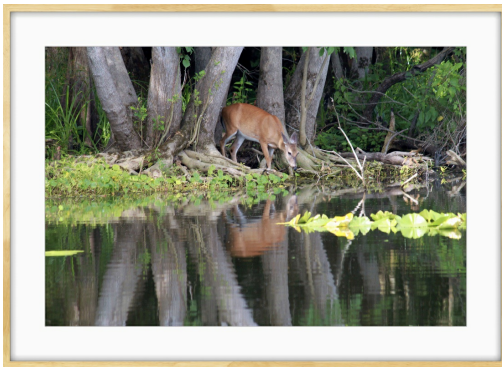

A: My favorite photo featured this month would be "Deer Drinking Out of The River". It was a pristine morning along the St. Johns river when, suddenly, a deer stepped out for a drink. I was able to capture a perfect moment before it was gone. This photo reminded me of a quote by Mehmet Murat Ilda, "When you take pictures of nature with passion, nature poses for you more passionately."

Q: Please explain how you deal with a creative block and get back on track?

A: The best way to break through a creative block is to spend time in nature and take pictures; by searching the internet for different artists to see what inspires them; and by watching tutorials or by reading about other photographers and how their techniques vary from my own, then trying them for myself.

Joyce Brady
Bead embroidery jewelry

Joyce Brady (jeweler)

Q: Please take one of your favorite pieces featured in the window this month and state your inspiration in creating this piece?

A: One of my favorite pieces displayed this month is a heart necklace with an image of Frida Kahlo, who was a very complex Mexican artist. Frida provided for me the inspiration to “step out of the box” to create unique, one-of-a-kind statement jewelry due to her flamboyant ways, bright colors, and butterfly flowers.

Q: Please explain how you deal with a creative block and get back on track?

A: I deal with creative blocks by taking examples from nature; by looking to other artists for inspiration of color and composition; by challenging myself to find new techniques and trying different patterns; and by searching online to find unusual jewelry components, which sparks creative thinking.

Artisans on the Go!

We are excited to share with you, our featured artist Ann Coker had an event of her own.

Denise, a friend-customer had an Open House and invited Ann for a "Meet the Artist event" over the Christmas holidays.

Denise had recently remodeled her home and purchased a series of New Mexico photographs to decorate her Southwestern Room.

She combined showing off her beautiful home with introducing her friends and neighbors to the artist.

Ann mentioned: I was honored to have her do this. I met many wonderful people. A fun evening!

The artists here at Artisans are very thankful to all of you, for your love and support!! Thank you Denise for having a special event for our artist and sharing your pictures with us.
